Pastoral Institute - Continuing Education Course
Mary: God Chooses the Poor and Lowly

In this course, Mary will be seen as "truly our sister, who as a poor and humble woman fully shared our lot" according to Pope Paul VI. We will explore Mary through scripture, liturgy and ancient Christian preaching. As a Jewish woman in a relatively poor, politically oppressed first-century peasant society, Mary was a friend of God and prophet. She encourages us to develop an ever-deeper relationship with God and a compassion for those in situations of poverty, prejudice, and violence today. This is a four week course for all adult Catholics. $20 per course.
